

Cleangenix Cookie Policy

At Cleangenix, we use cookies to improve the experience of visitors to our website. This policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and how you can control them.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit websites. They help us remember your preferences, gather website usage statistics, and improve website functionality.

Types of Cookies We Use:

1. Necessary Cookies: These cookies are essential for the operation of our website. They allow you to navigate and use features such as accessing secure areas of the site.
2. Performance Cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use our website, allowing us to improve website performance. For example, we use these cookies to track page views and understand user behaviour.
3. Functional Cookies: These cookies allow us to remember your preferences and customise your experience, such as remembering your language preference or location.
4. Third-Party Cookies: We may use third-party services, such as Google Analytics, that set cookies to collect data on user interactions with our website. These cookies help us understand how users engage with our site and offer improvements.

How You Can Control Cookies:

You can control cookies by adjusting your browser settings to block or delete cookies. However, please note that some parts of our website may not function properly if you disable cookies.

For more information on cookies and how to manage them, visit www.aboutcookies.org.
